SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO

1. In the Letna district of Prague, all residents on streets in the vicinity of the building of the Ministry of the Interior, such as Cachova, Karlenicka, Veverkova and others, are being evacuated to make room for STB personnel. The residents are receiving three days' notice to move. The cafe Vitava in Prague is also to be vacated for STB members. STB members who have been released and are elsewhere employed must report immediately and turn over their apartments to active STB members.
2. On or about 15 September 1950, all cars and trucks owned by non-Communists in the Litomerice area were confiscated; these vehicles numbered 1,000. Only motorcycles of a piston displacement of 250 ccn or more were taken. The confiscated vehicles were assigned to military units and painted the color of military vehicles. Some of the older vehicles were given to the State Railroads.
